Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa Invites Bullied Grandmother to Enjoy Complimentary, Stress-Free Vacation

DESTIN, Fla. (June 29, 2012) – After hearing the unfortunate story of the bullying attack on grandmother and bus monitor Karen Klein, the Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa has offered Klein a luxurious, week-long vacation to recuperate from her harrowing experience. The largest, full-service beachfront resort in Northwest Florida, the Hilton Sandestin Beach will provide Klein with two first-class tickets to Northwest Florida Regional Airport and an all-expenses paid stay in an elegant Presidential Suite, featuring a luxurious seating area, fully equipped kitchen and stunning views of the Gulf of Mexico.

“Like all who have heard this story, the Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa was deeply saddened by the treatment of Karen,” said Gary Brielmayer, Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa general manager. “Our resort strives to create a memorable experience for all guests, and we are thrilled to have the opportunity to offer Karen the time to recuperate from her experience.”

While visiting the Hilton Sandestin Beach, Klein will be able to enjoy six unique restaurants, a world-class luxury spa, state-of-the-art fitness center and an abundance of outdoor recreational options, including several relaxing pools, bicycling, boating, miles of pristine shoreline, nearby golf and shopping and much more.
