Hilton Sandestin Beach Donates $10,000 Worth of Labor Day Fare to Those in Need

DESTIN, Fla. (August 30, 2012) – Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa, the largest full-service beachfront resort on Northwest Florida’s Gulf coast, will contribute $10,000 worth of meats, cheeses and salads this Labor Day week to Destin Harvest, a local non-profit serving Northwest Florida. The resort partners with Destin Harvest in their efforts to supplement more than 25 organizations that help feed the hungry through soup kitchens, food pantries and homeless shelters.

Uncertain weather conditions associated with Hurricane Isaac caused many travelers to change vacation plans for the weekend prior to Labor Day, leaving Hilton Sandestin Beach with an overabundance of food product.

“Thanks to Destin Harvest, we’re able to create a positive outcome from a negative situation,” said Gary Brielmayer, Hilton Sandestin Beach general manager. “The storm left us with a lot of food on hand, and we’re thrilled that Destin Harvest can assist in getting it out to those who need it most this holiday.”

Destin Harvest serves a vital role in the community by providing free food to local organizations working directly with the homeless and struggling. Hilton Sandestin Beach joins the ranks of national companies such as Publix, Wal-Mart and Target that offer up surplus for distribution to shelters and other support facilities in Fort Walton, Crestview, and North and South Walton, many of which are at full occupancy year round.

The Hilton Sandestin Beach is looking forward to a sunny Labor Day weekend where guests will enjoy family activities including face-painting, pool games and live entertainment.
